

About Art League for Your Information

Art League & KIA

- Art League by-laws are posted on the website; they define our role at the KIA.
PURPOSE: Section 1: The purposes of the Corporation shall be to present lectures, programs and other learning opportunities to encourage the appreciation, understanding and enjoyment of the visual arts. These endeavors will supplement and/or compliment those of the Kalamazoo Institute of Arts.
- All members of the Art League must first be members of the KIA
- All members of the KIA are eligible to join Art League
- Our tag line reflects our history: Serving the KIA, our members and the community since 1955

Art League

- Dues are valid for 12 months beginning each July and ending on June 30
- Dues fund the annual lecture series
- The first lecture sponsored by the ladies who later formed Art League was designed to “set the tone” for excellence. The speaker was Diego Rivera!
- The lecture season schedule alternates to avoid conflict with Gilmore Keyboard Festival
